

Aerospace & Defense Europe Virtual Chat

Now is the time to fine-tune your European strategy and meet virtually with U.S. Embassy Commercial Specialists from Europe!

The U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. Commercial Service Global Aerospace and Defense Team invites U.S. aerospace and defense exporters to participate in our complimentary Europe Virtual Chat. This is a market counseling program in which you will meet virtually with U.S. Embassy Aerospace and Defense Commercial Specialists from Europe. During the one-on-one consultations, you will have the opportunity to get specific answers to your business questions:

- Learn about your company's sales potential in Europe
- Assess challenges in the marketplace
- Hone in on the best market opportunities
- Find out how the U.S. Commercial Service can help you identify new business partners
